

Neurite outgrowth: drug responses across methods

Nine-field well means from a fixed-pipeline transfer evaluation

Dots: two technical wells. Marks and whiskers: mean $\pm$ between-well SD, not confidence intervals.

Each curve uses its own zero-dose DMSO mean. Dose positions are equally spaced for display.

Within-method ratios compare response; they do not establish equivalent segmentation or absolute lengths.